Top scorers 2018/19 season :

Anders Eggert	36
Thomas Mogensen	21
Eivind Tangen	16
Sebastian Augustinussen	15
Jesper Konradsson	14
Bjarte Myrhol	13
Christoffer Mikkelsen	12
Jan Grebenc	8

- Two of Skjern's highest profile players returned to Denmark from SG Flensburg-Handewitt in 2017 (Anders Eggert) and this summer (Thomas Mogensen). Both won the VELUX EHF Champions League with Flensburg in 2014.

- Three more players of the current Skjern squad have played for German clubs in the past: Bjarte Myrhol (Nordhorn, Löwen), Björgvin Pal Gustavsson (Bergischer HC) and Jonathan Stenbäcken (Melsungen, Berlin).

- New arrival from Slovenia Jan Grebenc is the only non-Nordic player in Skjern's squad.

- Twelve players from Denmark, Norway and Sweden are part of the Flensburg squad.

- Only five Flensburg players, who won the trophy in 2014, are still on court for SG: Holger Glandorf, Hampus Wanne, Jim Gottfridsson, Tobias Karlsson and Lasse Svan.

- Each side have one Danish 2016 Olympic Champion in their line-up: Lasse Svan at Flensburg and Kasper Søndergaard at Skjern. Tobias Karlsson (2012 with Sweden) and Björgvin Pall Gustavsson (2008 with Iceland) have been on the losing side of Olympic finals.

- Six Norwegian silver medallists of the 2017 World Championship will duel in Flensburg.

- Both teams are reigning champions of their national leagues.

- It is the first competitive fixture between the teams.

- Anders Eggert is currently third in the VELUX EHF Champions League top scorer list with 33 goals.

- Both teams were quarter-finalists of the previous season, Skjern for the first time ever, Flensburg for the eleventh time. Both fell to the eventual finalists: Flensburg against winners Montpellier, Skjern against runners-up Nantes.

- Skjern were the first Danish team since 2012 (AG Copenhagen) to reach the quarter-finals of the competition.

- Skjern's best results in European Cup competition includes two Challenge Cup titles and reaching the semi-final in the EHF Cup, while Flensburg is the only club in Europe to win four different trophies: Champions League, EHF Cup, Cup Winners' Cup and City Cup.

- Flensburg won their last five Champions League matches against Danish clubs (twice against Aalborg in 2017/18, twice against Bjerringbro in 2016/17 and once against Kolding in 2014/15). Their last defeat, against Kolding in September 2014, made history as the 35:21 scoreline was the largest defeat for a defending champion in their first group match.

- Skjern's only previous duels with a German team in the Champions League came in the Last 16 matches of the 2003/04 season against Magdeburg (30:25, 24:34).

- This is Skjern's second Match of the Week in a row, following the Round 5 match against PSG, a 26:24 loss at Jyske Bank Boxen.

Betano to present ‘Player of the Match’ trophy

The match of the week ‘Player of the Match’ trophy, introduced by EHF Marketing last season, will be awarded at all MOTWs in the VELUX EHF Champions League 2018/19 season.

The trophy will be handed over on court shortly after the match by alternating sponsors throughout the season.

The presenting sponsor at SG Flensburg-Handewitt vs Skjern Handbold is Betano and the trophy will be handed over to the awardee by Christian Vorhauer, CEO DACH.

In the 2017/18 season, one SG Flensburg-Handewitt player (Tobias Karlsson in Round 13) received the award.

Awardees 2018/19:

Round 1 : Arpad Sterbik (Telekom Veszprém HC)

Round 2 : Ivan Pesic (HC Meshkov Brest)

Round 3 : Dika Mem (Barça Lassa)

Round 4 : Timur Dibirov (HC Vardar)

Round 5 : Emil Nielsen (Skjern Handbold)
