* 3 points for a win vs own group rivals,
2 points for a win vs other group rivals

- Kielce's 26:23 away win over Zagreb at Varazdin ended a series of two straight (and clear) defeats of the defending champions
- in the previous match Kielce's goalkeeper Filip Ivic, who arrived at from Zagreb, shone in glance
- both Croats, currently part of Kielce's squad, have played for Zagreb before. Besides Ivic, it is left wing Manuel Strlek, who join the Polish side in 2011
- before the current season, three more Croats left Kielce: Marin Sego, Denis Buntic and Ivan Cupic
- while Zagreb's squad only consists of players from former Yugoslavia countries (Croatia, Serbia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Slovenia and FYR Macedonia), Kielce count on players from seven different countries: Poland, Slovenia and Germany, Serbia, Croatia, Montenegro and Spain
- Kielce's German EURO champion Tobias Reichmann is supposed to be ruled out by an ankle injury, which occurred in Varazdin
- the Slovenian internationals Darko Cingesar, David Miklavcic and Matevz Skok (all from Zagreb) will face their national teammates Dean Bombac and Uros Zorman
- Zagreb are fourth ranked in the CL's All-time ranking, having exactly the double number of CL matches played compared to tenth ranked Kielce so far (233:117). PPD aim for their 111th win, while the defending CL winners have taken 71 victories so far
- Kielce play their 11th CL season, while it is already season number 23 for Zagreb - funny enough last week's duel was the first ever match of both sides in official competitions
- Zagreb's only win in this season was the MOTW match against Vardar, maybe a good omen
- Kielce lost two matches so far, one was the MOTW against Vardar
- scoring only 171 goals, Zagreb have the weakest attack in groups A and B, but a highly stable defence, conceding only 190 goals so far, nine fewer than Kielce
- Zagreb's last CL away win was the sensational 31:29 against Rhein-Neckar Löwen in last season's Last16
- under the helm of their new coach Silvio Ivandija (successor of Veselin Vujovic), Zagreb took one victory and two defeats
- no other team than Zagreb had been more often CL finalist, without winning the trophy: four times (1995, 1997, 1998, 1999), ahead of Veszprem (2002, 2015, 2016)
