- two Spanish coaches meet: Juan Carlos Pastor (Szeged) and Raul Gonzales (Vardar). Their balance of matches against other Spanish coaches in this group phase of this season is quite similar: Szeged took two wins against Kielce and Kolding (when Ortega arrived) and were defeated by Vardar and Barcelona twice (4:6 points). Vardar beat Kielce and Szeged and lost against Barcelona twice and Kielce once to have 4:6 points too (when they faced Kolding, Ortega was not their coach)

- in total, seven Spanish players on court - including five EHF EURO 2016 silver medallists: Antonio Garcia and Niko Mindegia (Szeged) and Arpad Sterbik, Alex Dujshbaev and Jorge Maqueda (Vardar)

- both goalkeepers - Jose Manuel Sierra (Szeged) and Sterbik (Vardar) were the Spanish duo, when becoming world champions in 2013 on home court

- three former CL winners on court: Jonas Källman, Roberto Garcia Parrondo (Szeged, both with Ciudad Real) and Arpad Sterbik (with Barcelona and Ciudad Real)

- Matjaz Brumen (Vardar) and Dean Bombac (Szeged) played together at the Slovenian record champion Celje and in the national team

- both sides were quarter-finalists in the 2014/15 season, but both failed on their way to Cologne: Szeged against Kiel, Vardar against Kielce

- Vardar's Russian left back Sergey Gorbok will join Szeged from next season

- in the full club history, Vardar did not take a single point in any away match in Hungary, but only played one match each at Szeged (18:24 in 2004) and Veszprem (22:27 in 2002)

- Szeged's home balance this season is five wins and one defeat so far, Vardar's away balance two wins and four defeats

- Szeged's Brazilian back player Thiago Santos is the only player of this duel, who already booked his ticket for the Olympic Games in Rio, being host of the event

- ten different nations represented on court: Spain, Croatia, Slovenia, Serbia by both of them, FYR Macedonia, Russia in the Vardar squad and Hungary, Brazil, Sweden and Bosnia Herzegovina in the Szeged squad
